Semester Orientation Master's program Informatik / Computer Science

Dear student,

As directors of the Master's program "Informatik / Computer Science" we would like to welcome you at Cologne University of Applied Sciences and are looking forward to a good cooperation. At the beginning of the master course, we want to invite you to the Orientation Meeting:

For all Master Students: Academic Orientation

Monday, 9th April 2018, 14:00

51643 Gummersbach / Germany, Steinmüllerallee 1 (Campus Gummersbach)
Room : 0503 (Ferchau Building)

The meeting should serve to clarify organizational issues and to give an overview of the events offered in the upcoming semester. In addition, you will have the opportunity to ask questions about the study program. If you are not able to attend the orientation, please email to inform us (hartmut.westenberger[at]th-koeln.de and Stefan.Bente[at]th-koeln.de). You may contact us for all matters relating your studies. In addition, Martina Brüderle advises our foreign international students (martina.bruederle@th-koeln.de).

The regular (weekly) classes will begin after the end of the orientation meeting.

For current information regarding our program, please visit www.MasterComputerScience.de.

Yours sincerely
