

REFUGEES WELCOME

Veranstaltungsreihe Flucht- und Flüchtlingspolitik
der Fakultät für Angewandte Sozialwissenschaften

Studying at the TH Köln - information session for immigrants and refugees

Faculty of Applied Social Sciences

- You can imagine to work in a kindergarten, a residential home or a youth center?
- You enjoy supporting and counseling people, guiding groups or organizing communities?
- You are interested to study methods and theory of the social sector?

Then inform yourself about the study programs of Applied Social Sciences at the TH Köln.

*In Arab & English
Childcare is offered*

Wednesday, 25th January, 2017

17:00 – 19:30

Ubierring 48, 50678 Köln

Bildungswerkstatt W1

The Faculty of Applied Social Sciences offers 4 study programs:

- BA Social Work
- BA Early Childhood Education and Family Studies
- MA Pedagogy and Management in Social Work
- MA Counseling and Advocacy in Social Law

All study programs prepare for working in the German social sector.

At the information session, the study programs will be introduced and the requirements for studying will be explained:

What is the content of the study programs?

What do I need to study at the TH Köln?

Which residence permits and school diplomas are necessary?

How can I finance my study?

The information session will be held in Arab and English.
Other languages on demand.

Childcare service is organized so that you can bring your children during the session. At our finger food reception after the session, you can get directly in contact with us.

Are you interested? Register online for the information session:

<http://www.thkoeln.de/infotag>