Semester Orientation Master's program Digital Sciences

Dear student,

we are glad to welcome you at Cologne University of Applied Sciences looking forward to a good cooperation. At the beginning of the master course, you are invited to the Semester Kickoff Meeting:

For all Master students: Academic Semester Orientation

Thursday, March 24, 2022, 4:00 pm (Central European Summertime)

The kickoff meeting will take place online. The lectures will start on March 28, 2022. Registration for the lectures prior to the kickoff meeting is not required.

The meeting should serve to clarify organizational issues and to give an overview of the events and the classes offered in the upcoming semester. In addition, you will have the opportunity to ask questions about the study program. If you are not able to attend the meeting, please email to inform us. You may contact us for all matters relating your studies. In addition, Larissa Busch advises our foreign international students (Larissa.Busch[at]th-koeln.de).

For current information regarding our program, please visit www.digital-sciences.de.

Yours sincerely
