

WHO ARE WE?

We are an NGO working in two villages close to the city of Arequipa in Peru. Our mission is to contribute to the integral development of the children and their families in our communities through carrying out projects in several areas:

- Education: homework support, soft skills
- Health: nutrition, dental health
- Socio-culture: inclusion of minorities, interculturality
- Environment: growing plants, recycling
- Working with parents: social skills, business skills

WHY INTIWAWA

Form part of an international and motivated team in Peru and make valuable experiences for your career! Working in the Intiwawa family is unpaid, but brings other advantages:

Professional experience

Make valuable working experiences in an area of your choice!

Language

Improve your Spanish skills living and working in Peru!

Responsibility

You have an idea for a project or an event? At Intiwawa anyone can assume responsibilities and show initiative!

Flexibility

Work with us when you want, in the area you want and how long you want (minimum 3 months)!

INTERNSHIPS

How can you involve yourself?

We offer unpaid internships for pro-active and creative individuals who want to involve themselves in our projects.

Education

Support us in our core work - the homework project - and bring in new ideas and methodologies! You can also involve yourself in English classes or start your own project!

Administration

Specialize yourself in an area of your choice: Marketing, Cooperations, Fundraising, Finance, Project Management or Volunteer Coordination and learn about the administration of an NGO!

Social work & Psychology

Our social work and psychology interns are highly independent and assume a lot of responsibility working with the children and their parents.
