Getting started
Basic knowledge for new students and PhD students at TH Köln
Whether you are an exchange student or are planning to obtain a Bachelor’s or Master’s degree or are conducting research as a doctoral candidate, we are pleased that you are with us. TH Köln – University of Applied Sciences is recognized for its disciplinary and cultural diversity as well as its openness. We offer students and scientists from Germany and abroad an inspiring environment to learn, work and research in social, cultural, engineering and natural sciences. Our interdisciplinary thinking and acting as well as our regional, national and international activities have made us both a valued partner and a trailblazer in many areas. Currently, more than 26,000 students are enrolled in over 90 degree programs offered by TH Köln on different campuses in Cologne, Gummersbach and Leverkusen.

Welcome to TH Köln!

TH Köln creates social innovation – this is our main idea as we approach the challenges of today’s society. And it is our pleasure to share our concepts and ideas with you. Our main campuses are located in Cologne – a vibrant city with around one million citizens. Cologne is not only well-known for its main cathedral (the Dom) and traditions such as beer and carnival. With nearly 95,000 students at 16 different universities, Cologne is among the top three destinations for student life in Germany. The city offers a wide range of cultural, arts and leisure events as well as a multi-faceted nightlife to fill every student’s needs.

You are beginning your stay in an exceptional time. We at TH Köln adapted by limiting personal contact and imposing measures to help cope with the Corona crisis. You will be given more information about the general rules at TH Köln by email and on our web page th-koeln.de/corona_en 26,000 students are currently enrolled at our university. Of these, 64 percent are male and 36 percent female students. In total, TH Köln offers 50 Bachelor’s and 50 Master’s programs as well as career-integrated models and part-time programs parallel to professional employment.

Your basic tools at TH Köln

MultiCa, campusID, WiFi and IT

Your Student ID Card: The MultiCa
You have received your MultiCa by mail after your enrollment. This card will play an important role in your everyday life at TH Köln. The multifunctional smart card serves as your student ID card, your public transport pass for the entire Rhine-Sieg Transport Association (VRS) as well as your library and copy card. Additionally, it can be used for (cashless) payments in all university cafeterias, and it gives you access to the university lockers.

What data is saved on the card chip?
Only the serial number of the card, your student ID, a status indicator (in your case, student), the University library number and the period of validity are saved. Only the amount of your credit is saved on the card but no information on what it was used for.

Please note: For organizational reasons, the use of your MultiCa will be restricted in the 2020/2021 winter semester.

Where can you put money onto your MultiCa?
You can put money onto your MultiCa at the MultiCa stations using your debit card (EC-card). Unfortunately, it is not possible to use a credit card. At some of the cafeterias cash registers, it is possible to pay in cash or to charge money onto the MultiCa by using cash.

Together with other relevant agents at TH Köln, the Referat für Internationale Angelegenheiten (Office of International Affairs) is in charge of making TH Köln a more international university, providing students with information on academic mobility programs or other international opportunities, and giving advice to university members from all over the world during their stay at TH Köln.

The Degree-Seeking Students team is the first contact point for international students. If you have any questions regarding your right of residence and employment permit, entry and visa requirements in times of Corona, cultural activities, and sports in the city or would like to have information on our mentoring program, please feel free to contact us any time.

During the pandemic, our offices are not open to the public, but you can reach us by phone or email, or schedule an individual zoom consultation.

Are you studying for a PhD?
Our Graduate Center offers numerous services. In seminars students are provided information on organizing their research, academic writing criteria or maintaining data in accordance with academic standards. Additionally, the Graduate Center supports PhD students with financial travel assistance (for attending conferences) and a three-year career coaching. German language courses are also offered for international doctoral candidates. Moreover, the Graduate Center strives to expand the doctoral student network by organizing regular doctorate afternoons. The service desk also informs prospective students on undertaking a doctorate and what prerequisites need to be fulfilled for doing so.

Graduate Center service center: graduatecenter@th-koeln.de
You will find more information on all our service institutions on the following pages.
campusID
Your campusID is your personal university account. It is generated automatically for you when you enroll. You have already received your username and the initial password for your first login along with your MultiCa by mail.
To activate your campusID, please go to: campusid.th-koeln.de (in German)
Enter your initial password and then choose an individual password.

Once your campusID has been activated, it will give you access to a broad range of university services, such as your university email account, Ilias, PSSO or the university Wi-Fi.
You will find further information and instructions on: th-koeln.de/campusid (in German)

VPN
You can access all services available on the TH Köln university network via a VPN connection, even from home or on the go. To access the university’s internal services, you will need to install the Cisco VPN client on your computer, notebook or smartphone. Different versions of the Cisco VPN client are available. For more information and instructions, go to: th-koeln.de/vpn (in German)

WiFi
Eduroam, the university Wi-Fi service, does not only give you internet access at TH Köln’s sites, but at every campus of an Eduroam university around the world. However, your device must comply with a few specifications. For information on the specifications and on setting up your Eduroam access go to: th-koeln.de/eduroam (in German)

Email
Your campusID will give you access to your personal TH Köln email address. TH Köln uses this address to provide you with important information on your studies. That is why it is important that you check your emails regularly. Usually, this email address has the following structure: firstname.surname@smail.th-koeln.de
You can use a webmail service to conveniently access your emails through your web browser. It is not necessary to install a separate email client. To access your emails via webmail, use the following link: http://webmail.th-koeln.de (in German)
You will need your CampusID to log into the webmail system. Alternatively, you can access your emails via clients such as Mozilla Thunderbird, Outlook, or Apple Mail. You will find the necessary configuration data and further information on our website.
The campusID Center (campusid.th-koeln.de) also allows you to forward incoming emails to a private email address.
You will find further information and instructions on: th-koeln.de/smail (in German)

Ilias
Ilias is an open-source learning platform that you will use in your everyday life at our university. On Ilias, teaching and learning materials can be created and shared online. Furthermore, students as well as lecturers may interact and collaborate on this platform.
https://ilias.th-koeln.de/

THspaces
THspaces is another important tool for your everyday life at TH Köln. It is a social learning environment for digital learning, where students and professors can create virtual study rooms. There, they can communicate during classes, consult with each other in project teams, create portfolios or publish project documentation. Homespace, the front page of THspaces, allows you to publish announcements, suggestions or tips, or to comment on them.
spaces.th-koeln.de

Zoom
Zoom Meeting Education is a web conference service for up to 300 participants. All students at our university can use the service, as a browser version or as an app. All you need to do is register with your email address or CampusID.
th-koeln.de/zoom

Additional services
Campus IT provides students with the following additional IT services
- SCIEBO (30 GB Cloud storage) th-koeln.de/sciebo (in German)
- Office365 Teams (in German) th-koeln.de/teams
- Software for Students th-koeln.de/software (in German)

Hochschulbibliothek (Library)
TH Köln’s university library provides a wide range of information services at its four interconnected campus libraries. The online catalogue contains a host of information that has been vetted for quality and is tailored to suit the requirements of your degree program. Printed media are freely available in the library rooms or can be borrowed, and of course there are scanners and photocopiers that you can use. E-books, e-journals and specialist databases can be accessed from home via your VPN connection. Find out more about how to use TH Köln’s library services and get tips on how to search for literature and e-books by watching the TH Köln library YouTube tutorials at www.youtube.com/user/fhbibkoeln/playlists. If you have any other questions, our library staff will be happy to help by phone or email.

Until further notice, access to the campus libraries will be limited in the 2020/2021 winter semester. Likewise, only some of the workstations will be accessible. Our website provides up-to-date information on the services currently available and the library’s contact points.

Akademie für Weiterbildung (Academy of Continuing Education)
Life-long learning and constantly expanding the personal education process – our Academy of Continuing Education offers a wide range of services for all TH Köln members as well as for professionals. Together with the Sprachlernzentrum (Language Learning Center), the Kompetenzwerkstatt (Skills Factory) and the Akademisches Schreibzentrum (Academic Writing Center), the Academy offers a variety of seminars and workshops to assist students throughout their studies as well as to prepare them for their future career: In addition to language courses, students may take courses on academic writing, communication and teamwork skills as well as mathematics. All seminars are free of charge for students enrolled at TH Köln. th-koeln.de/akademie (in German)

Scholarships

We have collected useful information on scholarships: Please find details on federal financial assistance (BaföG), student loans or other support – e.g. the scholarship Deutschlandstipendium https://www.th-koeln.de/internationales/stipendien_5395.php (in German)
What is PSSO?

PSSO stands for Prüfungs- und Studierendenservice Online (Online Examination and Student Services). PSSO offers students the possibility to easily organize administrative matters such as:
- Updating address and contact details
- Printing certificates of enrollment and BAföG certificates
- Printing transcripts of records and accessing information on examination results
- Registering for or withdrawing from examinations

Exception: It is currently not possible for most exchange students to register for or deregister from examinations using PSSO. Only exchange students at the Faculty for Business, Economics and Law and the Faculty of Architecture can register for examinations using PSSO. All other exchange students will be informed on the terms for examination registration by the International Office or by their faculty.

Password/initial access to PSSO

Once your campusID is activated, you will be able to log on to PSSO. Similar to online banking, you need a TAN for using PSSO. You receive the first TAN list by mail along with your MultiCa. If you would like to request a new password or initial access to PSSO, our Campus IT’s service team will be glad to assist you. Please note that such requests must be filed in person at TH Köln’s Campus IT. Please make sure to bring identification documents with you (such as ID or passport). You will immediately receive your new login details.

If you have any questions about PSSO, please contact our Office of Student and Examination Services (for contact details see page 8).

Please visit the following link to find PSSO’s login, operating instructions as well as further information on your login details or to request a new TAN list:

MultiCa stations
Students may charge money on their MultiCa at one of our MultiCa stations using your debit card (EC-cart). You will only have limited access to university buildings and cafeterias this semester. You can find up-to-date information on the use of your MultiCa on: th-koeln.de/multica_en

Validating stations
At our validating stations students may print the student ID card’s validity print for the current semester as well as the public transport pass (VRS ticket) on their MultiCa. You can find current information on validation on page 5 and on: th-koeln.de/multica_en

Mensa (Cafeteria)
TH Köln’s cafeterias are operated by Kölner Studierendenwerk (KStW). Each cafeteria offers daily menus including meat, vegetarian and sometimes vegan dishes as well as a salad bar.

Until further notice, all cafeterias and cafes in all TH Köln buildings are closed. The only exception is the cafeteria at Deutz Campus, which offers a take-out service.

Parking lots and toilets can be found on the locations maps (th-koeln.de/sites).

Studying while being a parent is a particular challenge. TH Köln supports you when studying with children or relatives requiring care. The Family Services Office offers advice in person or by phone on:
- Reconciling studying and family life at TH Köln
- Finding suitable day care
- Financial support for parents during pregnancy and following childbirth
- Information for caregiving relatives

Need to talk?
The ASTA and the Kölner Studierendenwerk (KStW) provide various psychosocial consulting services for students having trouble or problems during their studies – no matter if it is stress, personal crises or you simply have the need to talk to someone.
th-koeln.de/studieninfos (in German)

ASTA (General Students’ Committee)
The General Students’ Committee called ASTA is the executive authority for students’ self-administration at a university. The General Students’ Committee is elected by the Student Parliament and represents the students’ interests regarding the university. The General Students’ Committee offers advice on legal matters, study financing, studying with children, examination issues, working and social insurance. Additionally, it is the contact for international students, students with disabilities or chronic diseases as well as for students with general worries and needs (psychosocial support). ASTA also processes the public transport pass (SemesterTicket).

Fachschaft (Faculty Student Associations)
The Faculty Student Associations do a lot more than organizing the freshmen introductory events. Its members advise students throughout their studies. Besides providing lecture notes, they help students drawing up their timetable and provide them with information on examination regulations, e.g. what to do if you cannot take an exam due to illness and how to review your exam. You may drop by with any concerns during office hours.

By the way: A Faculty Student Association includes all students of one faculty or institute. Thus, you already became a member with your enrollment. All students can put themselves up for election. New members are welcome.

Where do I find what?
TH Köln’s sites

TH Köln not only impresses with its number of students but is also known for its many campus locations. Its faculties and institutions are spread out on more than six campuses – in and outside of Cologne.

Südstadt Campus
50678 Cologne

TH Köln’s Humanities Center is located between Ubierring and Rheinpromenade and includes the following faculties: Faculty of Applied Social Sciences, Faculty of Cultural Sciences, Faculty of Information Science and Communication Studies and the Faculty of Business, Economics and Law. Besides the headquarters of administration and the Executive Board, you also find numerous of TH Köln’s service institutions that are important for our everyday student life on this campus.

Deutz Campus
50679 Cologne

TH Köln’s Faculty of Architecture and all engineering faculties are located on the right bank of the Rhine River. Some service institutions for students can also be found on the campus. With an area of 60,509 m², the Deutz Campus is the largest site of TH Köln.

Altbau: Faculty of Architecture, Faculty of Civil Engineering and Environmental Technology
Hochhaus: Faculty of Information, Media and Electrical Engineering, Faculty of Automotive Systems and Production, Faculty of Process Engineering, Energy and Mechanical Systems, Institute for Technology and Resources Management in the Tropics and Subtropics (ITT)
- Location map: th-koeln.de/deutz_en

Leverkusen Campus

TH Köln’s Faculty of Applied Natural Sciences is located 15 kilometers away from Cologne, right in the middle of around 40 companies at CHEMPARK Leverkusen. The faculty’s focus is set towards applied chemistry and pharmaceutical chemistry. The chemistry park (CHEMPARK) is the temporary home of the faculty until the campus in Neue Bahnstadt Opladen is completed.

-> Location map: th-koeln.de/leverkusen_en

Gummersbach Campus
Steinmüllerallee 1, 51634 Gummersbach

Gummersbach Campus is placed in the region Bergisches Land, 50 Kilometers away from Cologne. With more than 5,000 students the Faculty of Computer Science and Engineering Science is TH Köln’s largest.
