2. Log in
 - a) After completing step 2) you are already logged in. If you are coming back later, then log in by going to <http://moodle.th-koeln.de> or directly to <http://moodle.th-koeln.de/login/index.php?lang=en>
 - b) Use your login credentials (step 1).
 - c) go to the section "Master Communication Systems and Networks" and click on "Online Self Assessment". Then click on "Enroll me".
 - d) Read the instructions, click on the chosen self assessment and begin by clicking on "Attempt quiz now".
 - e) You obtain your score and some feedback immediately after completing the assessment.

Please take the advice given in the test feedback very serious. You will have to conduct a test of similar level of difficulty for each single course including the research projects before you can participate. If your precognition is not sufficient you will not be able to attend any course and you will have to compensate the lack of knowledge by self-studies.
